MERIDIAN REAL ESTATE COMPLETES THREE PROPERTY SALES IN INDIANAPOLIS MARKET

(INDIANAPOLIS)-- Meridian Real Estate's Ross Reller has completed the sale of three land parcels in the Indianapolis area totaling more than 32.5 acres for the construction of an office building, multi-unit apartment complex, and a medical office park.

Reller represented Harrison Park, LLC in the sale of five acres of land at Fort Harrison to Vision Builders for the construction of the Indianapolis Commercial Sales office for Trane, a leading global provider of indoor comfort systems and comprehensive facility solutions. He also represented Pedcor, Inc., an Indianapolis multi-family housing developer, in the purchase of 25 acres of land in Noblesville from Home Depot for the development of an apartment complex.

A 2.5 acre parcel of land on the northwest corner of U.S. 31 and Southport Road in Greenwood was sold by Reller on behalf of Jim Walter Homes to H&W Properties for the purpose of building a medical dental office park.

Founded in 1993, Meridian Real Estate is Indiana's largest locally owned office and industrial real estate brokerage firm. The company was recognized by the Johnson Center for Innovation of the Kelly School of Business as a 2002 Indiana "Growth 100 Company" and by Midwest Real Estate News in May, 2003 as one of the Best of the Best" Top 25 Brokerage Firms in the Midwest. Meridian employs 35 professionals including 23 brokers and represents more than 2.1 million square feet of office and 2.8 million square feet of industrial listings. Meridian is also recognized by many as one of Indianapolis' dominant tenant representation firms and a leader in corporate multi-market services, medical office brokerage, economic incentive procurement and project management services.
