MERIDIAN REAL ESTATE NAMED A 2004 INDIANA GROWTH 100 AWARDEE

Indianapolis -- The Johnson Center for Entrepreneurship & Innovation, a division of Indiana University's Kelley School of Business, recognized Indiana's leading high potential, high growth companies at its 11th annual Growth 100 Dinner and Awards Banquet Wednesday, October 27 at the Indiana Roof Ballroom in Indianapolis.

Meridian Real Estate, of Indianapolis, was among the winners. Meridian Real Estate has received the Growth 100 Award for the third time.

Founded in 1993, Meridian Real Estate is Indiana's largest locally owned office and industrial real estate brokerage firm. Named by the Indianapolis Business Journal as the area's eighth fastest growing private company in September, 2003, the company was recognized by Midwest Real Estate News in May, 2003 as one of the "Best of the Best" Top 25 Brokerage Firms in the Midwest and by the Johnson Center for Innovation of the Kelly School of Business in 2002, 2003 and 2004 as an Indiana "Growth 100 Company". Meridian employs over 30 professionals spanning three companies and represents more than 2.7 million square feet of office listings, 3.9 million square feet of industrial listings and more than 450 acres of land listings as of November 2004. Meridian is also recognized by many as one of Indianapolis' dominant tenant representation firms and a leader in corporate multi-market services, medical office brokerage, project management services, economic incentive procurement through Meridian Incentive Advisors Inc. and development services through Meridian Asset Development.
